About London Art Fair

Founded in 1989, London Art Fair is a platform for discovery known for connecting the best galleries from around the world with both seasoned and aspiring collectors. The Fair provides a unique opportunity to discover and champion the most outstanding Modern and Contemporary Art. London Art Fair is an established destination for collectors, nurturing collecting at all levels, from major works by internationally renowned artists to prints and editions.

Launching the art world year, the Fair welcomes some 20,000 visitors and over 100 galleries from the UK, Europe and further afield. London Art Fair will return to the Business Design Centre for its 35th edition from 18 – 22 January 2023.

The Fair hosts three distinct exhibiting sections for both UK and international galleries:

Galleries: Featuring galleries displaying Modern and Contemporary Art; from established names to today's leading artists.

Art Project Section: Young contemporary galleries presenting curated displays of emerging artists from across the globe. Including: solo shows, group displays and large-scale installations.

Platform: Focusing on a single distinct theme every year, the section includes galleries presenting well-known, overlooked and emerging artists that align to the theme.

Year on year the Fair maintains its commitment to enable high quality engagement with art on show, through its highly regarded Talks and Tours Programme and curated presentations including:

Photo50: Our annual guest-curated exhibition of contemporary photography.

Museum Partnership: A showcase of key works from important regional collections.

Our well received VIP Programme provides a range of bespoke events and benefits during the Fair for key VIP clients, HNW Individuals and Patrons groups from the likes of: Barclays Premier, Citygroup, Linklaters, The Hepworth Wakefield, The Dulwich Picture Gallery, The Lightbox Gallery, The Photographers Gallery, and Quintessentially.

About Art Projects

Art Projects is a subsidised platform for curation-focused and cutting-edge contemporary art from across the globe. The section encourages curated gallery presentations from solo shows, thematic group displays to large-scale installations and performances. But the committee care open to considering all artforms.

Dedicated to cultivating a community of emerging international galleries and artists, Art Projects has established itself as one of the most exciting sections of London Art Fair, continuing to garner widespread critical acclaim and a distinct audience.

Why Participate

Art Projects galleries:

An important critical and commercial platform for contemporary art in London at the start of the year.

A destination for those looking to discover emerging talent.

An opportunity to showcase artists to our well-informed art buying audience of 20,000 visitors of which 4,000 are VIP individuals.

Networking and project opportunities with curators, public and private museums and gallery professionals.

Opportunity to participate in accompanying Fair programme of Talks, Tours, and Performances.

"Art Projects shows some excellent contemporary art. Some of today's best-known contemporary artists were shown early in their career at the London Art Fair".Forbes

"An unmissable opening to the international art calendar".Artlyst

'From paintings to photography, ceramics to sculpture, the London Art Fair is returning to Islington's Business Design Centre later this month, giving you the perfect opportunity to fill that blank wall or empty shelf with an engaging original artwork' Evening Standard Homes and Property
